1. Applicant's correspondence filed on 3 December 2004 request for an RCE has been received and considered. Claims 1-24 are pending.
2. Applicant is referred to Paper #10 mailed 15 April 2003 in its entirety.

Remarks

3. As earlier presented, the definition of "phoneme" is a member of the set of the smallest unites of speech that serve to distinguish one utterance from another in a language or dialect.

The current claim language is now the same as it was in 2003. Since the Examiner's position has been consistent since the first Final Rejection of 15 April 2003, this rejection is again repeated.

Diphones and triphones models inherently rely upon the context of adjacent phonemes. Thus, the applicant's previous arguments display a lack of consideration or understanding of basic terms of art that one of ordinary skill in the art of speech synthesis would be intimately familiar with.

4. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114.

See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

5. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
